This year it is going launch its doctoral programme called Executive Fellow Program in Management (EFPM). The rigorous curriculum seeks to instil passion for knowledge and the ability to apply that to real life scenarios. The Management Development Programmes (MDP) are MDP is designed to provide participants with value-added specialised knowledge in a specific area.

Islamic Banking & Finance

“In the aftermath of the global financial crisis, the prospects for Islamic finance appear brighter than ever. The industry ... untouched by subprime-mortgage-backed securities and other toxic assets that devastated many Western institutions continues to grow at a rate of about 20 percent a year.” – Mark Townsend, Institutional Investor.

Learn about the largest alternative financial system in the world today valued at approx $2 trillion dollars and present in over 75 countries including the likes of UK, Singapore, Luxembourg, Ireland, Turkey, Hong Kong, Australia and South Africa that is based on ethical foundations. The global Islamic banking & finance (IBF) industry is presently centred in the Arabian Gulf and Malaysia regions and is experiencing double digit growth rates as it expands to promising new growth areas in Africa, Europe, South and South East Asia. India is one of the countries expected to lead the next growth phase in this industry given the strong domestic demand anticipated in India for Islamic financial products and also given that a lot of Shari'a compliant investments are looking to be invested in Indian companies and infrastructure projects.
